

"Restoring Conversations: Nagendra Makhim's Journey to Better Hearing"

Nagendra Makhim from Miklajung is a retired school teacher who is well known for his chatty behavior. He mentioned that it was very important that he heard what people replied to him when he spoke. In last year's ENT Medical camp he was identified as a person with hearing related disability (Specifically Hard of Hearing). He was in a reasonable need of a Hearing aid. He had been trying on others hearing aid in order to go on with his conversations. However, this led to further loss of hearing for him.

In coordinated efforts of CBRF and rural municipality Nagendra received good quality hearing aids compatible to his requirement. He was quite happy to receive it from ward chairperson. Legend says he is still telling stories and making people laugh.
