

The Gifted Astrologer

Dikbir Sunuwar, a person with physical disability from Deumai Municipality is known as the gifted astrologer in his community where people visit him for astrology services. Despite his physical disability, he is passionate about tailoring and astrology. His wife, who supports him in his daily activities, is very happy from the support received through the program (DPRP).

The program provided him with a wheelchair and a commode toilet, enhancing his mobility and quality of life. Dikbir's story shows how community-level support can empower individuals with disabilities, enabling them to lead dignified and fulfilling lives.
